For the holders of domestic shares, notice of the shareholders' meeting may be issued by way of public announcement.

The announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in the media meeting the requirements of the CSRC. Once such announcement is made, all holders of the domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice of the shareholders' meeting.

Section 5 Holding of Shareholders' Meetings

Article 61

The Board of Directors of the Company and other conveners shall take necessary measures to ensure the proper order of the shareholders' meetings. Measures shall be taken to stop any disruption of the shareholders' meeting or troublemaking as well as infringement of the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders, and the matter shall be promptly reported to the relevant authorities for investigation and handling.

Article 62

All ordinary shareholders (including preference shareholders with restored voting rights), shareholders holding special voting shares, and other shareholders or their proxies whose names appear on the register of shareholders on the shareholding registration date shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting and exercise their voting rights in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations, and the Articles of Association.

Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' meeting shall be entitled to appoint others (who may not be a shareholder) as his/her proxy to attend and vote on his/her behalf. If the shareholder is a company, they may appoint a representative to attend and vote, and if the shareholder of the company has already appointed a representative to attend, they shall be deemed to have personally attended. A proxy so appointed can exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorization from such shareholder:

- (I) such shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' meeting;
- (II) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others; and
- (III) unless otherwise required by the applicable securities listing rules or other securities laws and regulations, the right to vote by show of hands or on a poll; however, a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

If the shareholder is a recognised clearing house (or its proxy), it may, as it thinks fit, appoint one or more persons as its proxies to attend and vote at any shareholders' meeting and creditor meetings. However, if more than one person is appointed, the instrument of proxy shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. The proxy may be signed by the authorised person of the recognised clearing house. Such person so appointed may attend the meeting and exercise the rights on behalf of the recognised clearing house (or its proxy) (not requiring presence of the shareholding voucher, notarised authorisation and/or further evidences to prove the due authorisation) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company, and enjoy the same legal rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

Article 63 Shareholders shall appoint their proxies by written instruments, which shall be made under the hand of the appointer or his/her proxy who is authorised in writing. Where the appointer is a legal person, the instrument shall be made under the seal of a legal person or under the hand of its director or duly authorised proxy.

Article 64 The proxy form shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of the meeting not less than 24 hours prior to convening of the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote, or 24 hours before the time appointed for voting. The notarised proxy statement or other authorisation documents, together with the proxy form, shall be lodged at the domicile of the Company or such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorised by the resolutions of the board of directors or other decision-making body shall attend the shareholders' meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 65 Any proxy form issued to a shareholder by the Board of Directors of the Company for appointing a proxy of shareholder shall be in such format as to allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote "FOR" or "AGAINST" and to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. Such form shall contain a statement that the proxy may vote as he/she deems fit in the absence of the shareholder's instruction.

Article 66

A vote given by a proxy in accordance with the terms of the proxy statement shall be valid, notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointer or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy statement was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company did not receive any written notice in respect of any such matters prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 67

Shareholders' meetings are convened by the Board of Directors and the chairman of the Board shall act as presider of the shareholders' meeting. If the chairman of the Board is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, a director selected by more than half of all directors shall convene the meeting and preside over the meeting.

Where the Board of Directors is incapable of performing or not performing its duties of convening a shareholders' meeting, the Supervisory Committee shall convene and preside over such meeting in a timely manner; where the Supervisory Committee fails to convene and preside over such meeting, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over such meeting by themselves.

When a shareholders' meeting is held and the presider of the meeting violates the rules of procedure making the meeting unable to continue, a person may be elected as the presider of the meeting with the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders with voting rights, to continue the meeting.

Article 68

The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure of the shareholders' meeting to specify in details the convening and voting procedures of the shareholders' meeting, including notice, registration, deliberation of proposal, voting, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of resolutions, minutes, the signing thereof and announcement, as well as the principles of authorization by the shareholders' meeting to the Board of Directors, of which the contents shall be clear and specific. The rules of procedure of the shareholders' meeting shall be formulated by the Board and approved at the shareholders' meeting.

Article 69 Where the shareholders' meeting requires directors, supervisors and senior management to attend the meeting, the directors, supervisors and senior management shall attend the meeting and answer the inquiries of shareholders.

Article 70 The presider of the meeting shall, prior to voting, announce the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting in person as well as the total number of their voting shares, which shall be the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting in person and the total number of their voting shares as indicated in the meeting's registration record.

Article 71 If the presider of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put to the vote, he/she may have the votes counted. If the presider of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the presider of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the presider of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 72 If votes are counted at a shareholders' meeting, the result of the poll shall be recorded in the minutes.

Minutes shall be kept of the decisions on the matters discussed at the shareholders' meeting, and the convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, the secretary to the Board of Directors, the convener or representative thereof and the presider of the meeting attending the meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes together with the attendance record of the attending shareholders and the proxy forms as well as valid information relating to the voting online or by other means shall be kept for at least 10 years.

Section 6 Voting and Resolutions of Shareholders' Meetings

Article 73 Resolutions of shareholders' meetings are classified as ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be passed by more than one half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.

Shareholders attending a shareholders' meeting (including proxies) shall expressly specify whether they are in favor of or against any matter which is being voted for. If a shareholder or his/her proxy casts abstention vote or abstains from voting, the voting results representing the shares held by such voter shall be counted as "abstention". Blank, wrong, illegible or uncast votes shall be deemed as the voters' waiver of their voting rights, and the voting results representing the shares held by such voters shall be counted as "abstention". When the Company counts the votes in respect of the relevant matter, the abstention vote shall be counted as votes with voting rights and participated in the poll.

Article 74

Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares with voting rights represented by them, and each share entitles the shareholder one voting right at the shareholders' meeting. However, the shares of the Company held by the Company shall not be entitled to vote and such shares shall not be counted as part of the total number of shares entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting.

Where any shareholder is, under applicable laws and regulations and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or against any particular resolution, any vote cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in violation of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted in the results.

Article 75

Voting at shareholders' meetings shall be conducted by open ballot.

On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his/her votes in the same way.

When a proposal is being considered at the shareholders' meeting, no change shall be made to the proposal, or the relevant change shall otherwise be deemed as a new proposal which may not be voted at such shareholders' meeting.

Article 76

When a shareholders' meeting holds a vote, it shall vote on resolutions on one-by-one basis.

If the proposal of the election of a director was passed by the shareholders' meeting, the appointed director shall take office immediately after the resolution on the election proposal is approved at the shareholders' meeting, unless otherwise specified in the relevant resolution.

Article 77

The following matters shall be approved by ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;

The chairman and the director who perform the company affairs on behalf of the Company shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors. Each term of office shall be three years and they may be re-elected.

A director is not required to hold shares in the Company.

Article 80

Director candidates shall generally be submitted by the board of directors of the Company to the shareholders' meeting of the Company by way of proposal. Shareholders and the Supervisory Committee of the Company may nominate candidates for directors in accordance with the Articles of Association.

The minimum length of the period for giving notice to the Company of the intention to nominate a candidate for election as a director and the period for giving notice to the Company by such candidate of his/her willingness to accept such nomination shall be at least seven days, which shall commence from the day after the despatch of the notice of the meeting for such election and end no later than seven days prior to the date of such meeting.

The Company will fully disclose the biography, reasons for election and the attitude of candidates towards nomination in the notice of meeting.

Article 81

A director may resign before his or her term of office expires, in which case such director shall submit a written resignation to the board of directors.

If the number of directors falls below the quorum as a result of the resignation of a director, the resignation of such director shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from the resignation is filled up by the succeeding director. The remaining directors shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of a director.

Except for the circumstances set out in the preceding paragraph, the resignation report of a director shall take effect when the resignation report is delivered to the board of directors.

Subject to the relevant regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, if the board of directors appoints a new director to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director, the term of office of the director so appointed shall expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting of the Company after his/her appointment and he/she shall be eligible for re-election.

Article 82

Where a director causes damage to others during the performance of their duties, the Company shall be liable for compensation; where a director acts with willful or material default, they shall also be liable for compensation.

The Company has established a management system for director resignations, clearly specifying the accountability and compensation measures for unfulfilled public commitments and other outstanding matters. When a director's resignation becomes effective or his/her term of office expires, he/she shall complete all handover procedures with the Board of Directors. His/her fiduciary duties to the Company and shareholders shall not automatically terminate at the end of his/her term of office, but shall remain valid within a reasonable period as stipulated in the Articles of Association. The responsibility that a director bears during their term of office due to the performance of his/her duties shall not be waived or terminated upon leaving office.

Any director whose term of office has not expired shall be liable for compensation for any loss caused to the Company by his/her unauthorised resignation.

Subject to compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders' meeting may remove any director whose term of office has not expired by an ordinary resolution without prejudice to any claim for damages that such director may have under any contract.

A director who fails to attend meetings of the board of directors in person or by proxy for two consecutive times without proper reasons shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties, and the board of directors may propose to the shareholders' meeting to remove such director.

Article 83

If the term of office of a director expires but re-election is not made responsively or if any director resigns during his or her term of office so that the number of directors falls below the quorum, the said director shall continue fulfilling the duties as a director pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until a new director is elected.

Meetings of the board of directors shall be held at least twice a year and convened by the chairman of the board of directors. Notice of not less than 10 days shall be given for a regular meeting and not less than 5 days for an extraordinary meeting. The notice period may be waived with the consent of all directors of the Company.
